

EUROVILLAS & TOURS

Residence Levanto

Restored classic Italian villa located on the last undiscovered coastal section of the Italian Riviera, in the village of Levanto, just north of the Cinque Terre.

The villa, built in 1906, was recently restored by the Campodonico family and is now a charming and well known small hotel.

The Villa offers single, double rooms and triple bedrooms, all with private bath, television and telephone, radio, cd player, air conditioning, private parking, disabled.

Each room is unique - decorated with antiques but with the modern amenities and comfortable beds. Internet access is available.

Some rooms have a private patio overlooking the Mediterranean sea. Buffet breakfast, lounge, wide private gardens.

Levanto is a town of old world charm. It has a good beach, many shops and restaurants and is one train stop away from the Cinque Terre - making it the perfect base for your trip to this region.

