Boutique Central 4 star
FLORENCE

Located in the centre of Florence in the historical Borgo Pinti, within walking distance of squares, churches and monuments that have made this marvelous city famous, this elegant Renaissance Palace is furnished with fine antique furniture.

With 45 rooms, all completely different from each other in terms of space and furnishings, enjoy the pleasant tranquility that characterizes the hotel. Offered in a variety of layouts, the rooms are furnished with antique furniture and period paintings.

Charming in the attention to detail and the quality of passanterie, they come complete with air conditioning, flat-screen satellite TV, minibar and bathroom. Several with balconies overlooking the gracious garden.

The Palace, originally a convent, was purchased in the 15th century and furniture, paintings and statues collected over the centuries decorates the lounges and rooms. Transformed in 1956 into a 4-star hotel; the property keeps the genteel charm of patrician homes intact with original Florentine terracotta floors and coffered ceilings. An unforgettable place, rich in subtle charm, alluring and elegant.

Every corner of this historical residence emanates extraordinary impressions, linked to the silent presence of a secular story and works of art such as Gaetano Spinelli's "The Golden Rain", the original sketch of "The Rape of the Sabine" by Giambologna and the sculptures and the drawings of the neoclassical sculptor and writer Giovanni Duprè (1817/1882), from whom the current proprietors descend.

In the lush Italian garden during the warm months, after a day of visits to museums and shopping, you can relax by enjoying a drink or reading a newspaper.

For those travelling by car, the hotel has limited parking, inside the garden, by request and a small additional fee.
