

Una camera da letto, Montefalco, UMBRIA

- One bedroom village apartment

This wonderful apartment is located on the ground floor and right in the centre of the delightful hilltown of Montefalco. Situated a stone's throw from the main piazza at the top of the town with views across the valley to other hilltowns nestling on the Apennine range in the distance. Once part of a cardinal's residence this exquisitely decorated place preserves the colours and forms of its Medieval and Renaissance past.

The two rooms are of generous proportions and contain original oak beam ceilings, floors in terra cotta, and simple furnishings. Expertly modernised in a way that harmonizes with its historic detail it will provide a comfortable and beautiful experience in the heart of one of the gems of Umbria's hilltowns.

The living room has two versatile sofa beds, cable TV, DVD player, and a kitchenette with refrigerator, sink, microwave, kettle & coffee-maker. And a corner desk with office chair.

The large bedroom with an original fireplace (not currently in use) has a Queen size double bed and also a two-seater couch, wardrobe and chest. The modern bathroom with large shower

The house itself is in a quiet side street - the most photographed in town - with cafes and restaurants just paces away in the main piazza.

Montefalco boasts a unique location in an area rich in history, art, architecture, award-winning wines, sensational foods, and stunning landscapes across seasons. It is in the very heart of Italy and in a region that is as yet relatively undiscovered.

Activities (on site or nearby): Hiking; exquisite walks through nearby forests or numerous surrounding country lanes, Shopping; closest large shopping town is Foligno but also nearby to Spoleto Assisi and Perugia shopping experiences, Restaurants; four excellent restaurants in the town Montefalco won the award for Italy's best red wine in 1998, Museums containing a range of late medieval and early renaissance frescoes, Sightseeing; close to major Umbrian towns of historic and artistic interest.

