Country Cottage, Near Frigiliana ANDALUSIA

- 1 Bedroom, Sleeps 3, 1 Bathroom, 1 Half Bathrooms
- Swimming pool – shared

This delightfully traditional Andalusian country cottage - thick walled, quiet, secluded, and over 100 years old – is set amidst lush gardens with panoramic views. A lovely vine covered terrace looks out over the garden and towards the Sierra Alimijara and Tejada mountain ranges and also with stunning views of the Mediterranean. Located in a beautiful valley north of the small beach town of Nerja, with the picturesque medieval town of Frigiliana ten minutes away. At night, the view of the village is spectacularly illuminated against the dark back-drop of the mountains behind.

Beautifully furnished lounge/dining room with wooden beams and a fire place, air conditioning and heater. Fully furnished kitchen with hob and oven, fridge/freezer and washing machine. Double bedroom, bathroom with shower, towel heater and an extra toilet.

Situated on a beautiful 10,000m² ecological farm, surrounded by olive groves, cypresses and palm trees and all kind of fruit trees, including mangoes and avocados.

The estate consists of one other cottage and one apartment (sleeping 2 each), and a good distance from each other, to ensure privacy.

From the terrace and the large shared saltwater swimming pool (60m²) you can enjoy the further breathtaking views on the Mediterranean Sea, the village and the distant mountains.

Access is via a small country road, which is very windy, and 3km from the main road. Nerja is a further 7km and the nearest beach. Less than an hour from Málaga Airport, and an easy drive to Granada, Cordoba and Seville.
