

Giacomo's Attico, LUCCA

- One bedroom apartment (Sleeps 2-4)

Located in the centre of the beautiful and historic medieval town of Lucca, you step out of the apartment into the heart of Tuscan life.

This traditionally furnished and well-lit apartment is located on the 4th floor and tastefully decorated with oak parquet flooring and chestnut roof beams.

The open-planned lounge is spacious, airy and bright, with plenty of natural light and accommodates the dining area to seat four. Air conditioning for the summer and central heating for the colder months. The large sofa converts to a comfortable bed.

The bedroom faces south and has 2 sets of windows overlooking the rooftops and the stunning marble facade of the church of "San Michele", and also the courtyard cul-de-sac below.

Furnished with a stylish king size wrought iron bed, which also separates into 2 good sized singles. And there is plenty of storage so you can easily unpack and make yourself at home.

The galley style kitchen has good work surface and diverting views over the rooftops of Lucca to the mountains beyond. Fully equipped and comprising of large fridge/freezer, sink with Italian style drainer situated above, gas hob with electric oven situated underneath, microwave and good storage space.

The good-sized bathroom with W.C., wash hand basin, radiator with towel rail above, towel storage cupboard and washing machine and fully tiled shower.

And a cupboard leading off the kitchen where vacuum cleaner, iron, ironing board, clothes dryer and general cleaning equipment is kept. The private vestibule entrance area has hanging space for outdoor coats/jackets.
