

Hotel Universal FLORENCE

This unique 'Vintage' 3 star hotel in central Florence has been totally renovated in 2008 in a 70's style. Located in the beautiful square of Santa Maria Novella in Florence, a few steps away from the main train station and close to the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore. All sightseeing, tourist attractions and the exclusive shopping street of Via Tornabuoni, are within easy walking distance.

The owners have dedicated as much passion and attention to furnishing this hotel as they would with our own home by diversifying the look of every single room, making your stay unique and unrepeatable every time. Share with them the atmosphere that they have passionately recreated. All of the rooms are unique, unrepeatable, furnished with superior taste by someone wishing to reserve exclusive surprises for every guest. Colours, furniture, decorations and atmospheres are always different to make your stay in Florence a unique experience, in a wonderful historical frames ...

The 15th-century building which houses the hotel features a lift and is fully air conditioned for guest comfort. An Internet corner is available, and 24-hour front desk services include museum and restaurant bookings.

All 41 rooms, comfortably appointed, feature air conditioning, LCD TV, direct dial telephone, ensuite bathroom with shower, hairdryer and work desk.

