

Central 5 star ROME

Located in one of Rome most beautiful historical buildings, Villa Ludovisi. The building was designed by the leading architect of the time, Gaetano Koch.

Built in 1889 as the first luxury hotel on Via Veneto, this Hotel is a jewel of neo-classic elegance and still continues to be the home away from home for many celebrities, socialites and political figures.

The hotel is within walking distance to famous Roman sites and ruins such as the Trevi Fountain, Piazza Navona, Villa Borghese and the Spanish Steps.

The fashionable Via Condotti and Via Borgognona, with all of their haute couture boutiques, along with the nightlife of Piazza di Spagna and the historical centre are an easy stroll from the hotel.

Euro500-Euro610.00 per room per night

