

Le Couvent, L'Isle sur la Sorgue PROVENCE

This outstanding location in Isle sur la Sorgue is an ode to life's pleasures. Tucked away under the passageway of the old town, this former 17th century convent has been converted and is now a stylish, modern and very comfortable boutique hotel, offering five rooms and suites, each individually furnished with character and colour of Provence region.

Another jewel is hidden away in the former sacristy, now a gastronomic restaurant! This is a gourmet landmark popular for its stone vaults with the river running close by and delightful Provence cuisine.

The fireplace comforts guests in the winter while the flower-adorned courtyard is a pure delight in summer.

Each of the five rooms is individually styled and furnished, to a high level of comfort and with modern facilities, to ensure a relaxing and memorable holiday.

