

EUROVILLAS & TOURS

Les Papillon, Saignon PROVENCE

- Country cottage – sleeps maximum 2 people.
- Shared pool
- 1 x double
- 1 x bathroom

A romantic single-storey stone cottage that used to be a small barn, with a pretty private garden situated next to the ‘potager’ where you can pick your own fresh herbs, tomatoes and cut flowers.

Gorgeous kitchen with oven, hob, dishwasher, washing machine, fridge freezer, pretty Provençal table and chairs. Spacious sunny sitting room with open fireplace, TV/video, CD player, a selection of videos and books. French doors lead out to the terrace with metal arbour and outdoor table & chairs.

Bathroom with WC, hand basin and traditional bath-on-feet. Lovely light bedroom with double bed & French doors leading into the garden.

Located on a ‘Domaine’ which comprises of five beautifully restored stone houses set in ten hectares of beautiful countryside in the heart of Provence. To the south of the property are its three-and-a-half hectares of rolling lavender fields, in bloom from late June until the end of July. To the west is a spectacular view out to the celebrated Mont Ventoux with its chalky summit that looks like snow all year round, and to the north are the magnificent Luberon hills.

And only a few minutes from the unspoilt and welcoming Medieval ‘perché’ village of Saignon, with a boulangerie, épicerie, Post Office, village school and three restaurants.

