

EUROVILLAS & TOURS

Chez Eva, L'Isle sur la Sorgue PROVENCE

- Two bedrooms (sleeps 3 to 4)
- One bathroom/shower room

In the heart of the Vaucluse region of Provence, the medieval village of L'Isle sur la Sorgue, with its gentle sophistication and extraordinary character, is where the quiet country life and the buzz of daily village activity are in perfect harmony. Situated on the island in the centre of L'Isle sur la Sorgue, "Chez Eva" has been totally restored and decorated.

This delightful apartment, approximately 60m² in area, offers all modern facilities. Kitchen floor of ancient stones, living room with oak-tree from northern France. Visible beams and charming layout in 3 different levels gives a great special impression with the open kitchen / living room and the large windows that opens out to the small square and pedestrian area. Located on the second floor of an old town house with view of the ancient tile roofs, the church and from the gallery you can glimpse the famous Mont Ventoux in the distance.

The living room has sofa and armchair, TV/DVD and TNT/Sat channels, Wifi and writing desk.

The kitchen is open-plan and equipped with oven, induction stove, microwave, fridge-freezer, washing machine, dishwasher and coffee machine. It has a dining table, as well as a breakfast bar with high stools. There is a tumble dryer down one floor for guests' use.

Bedroom 1 has its own air conditioning unit and is off the living room, down some steps as the building is ancient and on different levels. The bed is 1.6m wide (5.25ft) and the view is down the main pedestrian street. Bedroom 2 is on the mezzanine level above the kitchen, and open to the main living space, which means it benefits from the living room's air conditioning. The bathroom with Luberon limestone is on the living room level and has a big shower, basin and WC.

This is the perfect place to stay if you love the old Provençal villages, fresh produce markets and L'Isle sur la Sorgue's famous antique shops and within easy reach of all the major attractions this wonderful region has to offer.

