- 2 bedrooms (Sleeps 4)
- Private terrace and garden area
- Shared pool

Delhia is a 65m² two-story house, directly accessible from the patio and a pleasant wisteria-covered terrace. Two good sized bedrooms – one with queen double bed, and the second with twins. They share one bathroom with shower.

As you enter the main courtyard the magic begins...the pond, the fountain, the herbaceous plantings; the pathways and stones of the old restored farmhouse – an enchanting and peaceful setting. Continuing you reach a delightful flower garden area and the large infinity pool enclosed in a private wooded setting.

The perfect spot to relax and enjoy a home away from home, while exploring this region. Uzès (5km) the Pont du Gard, Nîmes, Arles, Aigues-Mortes, and the beautiful nature reserve of the Camargue with its wild horses and pink flamingos.

Carefully and tastefully restored, this old farmhouse and surrounding buildings, now consists of 8 houses which share the fully equipped terrace and barbecue, and large infinity pool in the main garden. Each house is original in its décor and setting...old stones combined with contemporary industrial style, with views of the courtyard, patio, pool, garden or hills of the Cevennes. The individual houses comprise of a kitchen, bathroom, living room and dining room, large bedrooms with exceptional views. The interiors are sleek, refreshing and styled with a selection of contemporary furniture - cozy and charming, sofas and armchairs, large beds with original heads, lamps and industrial buffets, linen curtains, decorative objects, and each with their own vine covered terrace, surrounded by plantings and trees for privacy.
